

Bidding Team Overview

Descriptions of Nexamp's project and leadership team, as well as organization chart of the personnel structure of the proposed facility's development, design and construction, and operations and maintenance organizations can be found below.

Nexamp Project Team	Role
Mark Frigo	Vice President, Energy Storage Location: Chicago
Eric Barron	Manager – Energy Storage Development Project Team Lead and Primary Point of Contact Location: Massachusetts
Alex Reilly	Director – Energy Storage Development Location: New York
Mohamed Kassamali	Director – Energy Storage; market strategy, project analysis, and technology lead Location: Philadelphia
Jake Bever	Manager, Energy Storage Analysis – Energy Storage; project analysis Location: Chicago
Babak Enayati	VP, Grid integration, CED operations Location: Boston
Stephen Petrarca	Associate Principal Engineer, Project Design Location: Boston
Scott Sargent	Director, Deployment Location: Boston
Skip Provost	VP, Operations and Maintenance; ongoing O&M services lead Location: Boston
Bowen Burditt	VP, Asset Management; ongoing solar program and customer service lead , storage dispatch and operational strategy Location: Boston

Project Organization Chart

Executive Leadership

Zaid Ashai

Chairman and CEO

Provides vision and leadership to drive continued growth and innovation at Nexamp.

Peter Tawczynski

CFO

Leads project finance and accounting teams, focused on long-term strategic growth.

Chris Clark

CDO

Oversees Nexamp's Business Development team, leading the successful development of Nexamp-originated DER opportunities and strategic entrance into new markets.

Will Thompson

Founder & SVP,
Asset Management

Leads Nexamp's full spectrum monitoring, maintenance and asset management teams, focused in renewable infrastructure implementation and lifecycle management.

Chris Perron

SVP, Clean Energy Deployment

Oversees all Engineering, Procurement and Construction for Nexamp solar and storage projects.

John Murphy

CSO

Responsible for the advancement of Nexamp's policy-driven growth strategies, product development and targeted market expansion efforts.